

NEWS FROM DALLAS

Dallas Merchants Extend Store to Occupy Entire Building.

Formal opening of the Glick Bros. ready-to-wear store at 1602 Elm street, which has been enlarged to occupy the entire building, will take place Thursday, according to announcement of Louis Glick and Moses Glick, members of the firm.

The store now occupies three floors of the building, and has 12,500 square feet of floor space. The first floor is utilized for furnishings, bag and hosiery department; the second for suits, dresses and furs, and the third the shoe department, and the beauty parlor.

Mr. and Mrs. Isadore Goldsmith will arrive from New York and will be the guests of their daughter, Mrs. George Coon, 5421 Bryan street.

Rabbi to Give Lecture.

Rabbi Isaac Werne will deliver the second of a series of lectures pertaining to the Passover service tonight at the Shaareth Israel Synagogue.

His subject will be "The Biblical Element of the Hagadah." Next Wednesday night he will speak on the poetry of the Hagadah.

Robert I. Cohen, prominent business man of Galveston, was in the city yesterday on his way home from a trip to Mineral Wells.

Jewish Women Arrange for Presentation of Tableaux.

Under the direction of Jonas A. Rosenfield, the Junior Council of Jewish Women will present to the public a tableaux, "Vivants of Passover" at 2 performances, one on the night of April 26 at Shaareth Israel Synagogue and the other the following night at Temple Emanu-El.

The tableaux will consist of elaborate living pictures in ten scenes telling the biblical story of Jewish bondage in Egypt, the finding of Moses, the tenth plague, the exodus, and down through the ages to a picture of the Seder service in the Jewish homes of today.

The ritual music of the Passover will be given by the Junior Council Music Study Circle.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cohn, 2315 South Boulevard, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Sophie, to Gus H. Miller, of Orange, Texas. The wedding took place April 14 at the home of the bride's parents. Only members of the family were present at the ceremony, which was performed by the Dr. David Lefkowitz. Mr. and Mrs. Miller will be at home at Orange after their wedding trip to points in the south.

At a called meeting of the Sisterhood of Temple Emanu-El held Tuesday, Mrs. Theodore Marcus was elected chairman of the garden fete to be given by the Sisterhood the latter part of May.

The formal presentation of the grand piano bought by the Sisterhood of Temple Emanu-El will take place Friday evening in the temple immediately after services.

The Sisterhood of Temple Emanu-El will hold its regular meeting Tuesday at 3 p. m. in the Temple annex. Business of importance will be discussed and officers will be nominated.

Maurice Epstein of Houston and Miss Frances Silverman of Hugo, Okla., were married Tuesday at the Adolphus by Dr. David Lefkowitz. Mrs. Louis Silverman of Hugo, Okla., mother of the bride, was present at the ceremony. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Sam Frelich of Hugo and her little niece, Miss Samuella Frelich, as matron of honor and flower girl. The bride-groom was attended by his brother, Ben Epstein of Chicago, as best man. The bride wore a gown of white silk net over silver lace, embroidered with sequins and pearls, and a tulle veil caught to a coronet of seed pearls. Mr. and Mrs. Epstein will be at home in Houston after April 20.

Tableaux of Passover Will Be Shown By Jewish Women.

A series of tableaux vivant, or living pictures of the Jewish bondage in ancient Egypt and the exodus under the leadership of Moses, will be given April 26 and 27 by the Dallas Council of Jewish Women with a cast of more than seventy-five men, women and children. The first presentation will be given April 26 at Shaareth Israel Synagogue at 8 p. m., and the second at Temple Emanu-El, April 27. Jonas A. Rosenfield is directing the production. The purpose of the tableaux, according to Mr. Rosenfield, is to give the Jews of the city and all Christians who so desire an opportunity to learn the full significance of the Jewish Passover.

B'nai B'rith Convention to Be Held Here in May.

Between 300 and 400 delegates and visitors are expected in Dallas May 1, when the annual convention of the Independent Order of B'nai B'rith, District No. 7, convenes here in a three day session, according to Lawrence Miller, president of the Dallas lodge.

The district comprises the States of Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, Alabama, Arkansas, Mississippi and Florida.
